If you are the importer of record, payment to the broker will not relieve you of liability for U.S. Customs and Border Protection charges (duties, taxes or other debts owed Customs and any additional Other Government Agencies) in the event the broker does not pay the charges. Therefore, if you pay by check, Customs and Border Protection and Other Government Agency charges may be paid with a separate check payable to the "U.S. Customs Service" which shall be delivered to Customs and Border Protection by the broker. Importers who wish to utilize this procedure must contact our office in advance to arrange timely receipt of duty checks.

Dear U.S. Customs & Border Protection:

When we started imported business with our freight forwarder _____
We were introduced to _____, based would act as customs broker for our shipment.

For each entry, we receive copies of the entry summaries

We regularly communicate with _____ CHB to go over our entries.

Attached is the Customs & Border Protection (CBP) Power-of-Attorney, signed

By _____ on _____

As a convenience to our accounting department, we asked our freight forwarder _____ and _____ put all of the charges relating to our shipment on one invoice from the freight forwarder, including the customs brokerage fee, duty, etc.

We received one itemized statement.

It is easier for us to process and lower our administrative cost.

When we have any questions concerning the entry, we contact _____ directly.
